TO VOL. XXVIII. (VOL. IV., THIRD SERIES) OF THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF PHARMACY.

Absorbent Powders 271
Acetate of magnesia, crystallized 245
Acetic ether, purification of 400
Acetic turpentine liniment 311
Acid nitrate of mercury 520
Aconite, accidental poisoning by 219
Aconite and horse-radish roots compared 219
Aconitia ointment 19
Action of glucose on the salts of copper in presence of acetates . 140
Action of sugar on the teeth 221
Action of white lead on birds 321
Action of red phosphorus, internally 324
Action of oil of sassafras on metallic vessels . . . 5
Action of phosphate of soda on fluor spar 529
Action of vegetable acids on calomel 527
Action of nitrates as manures 567
Addendum to "more poison in soda water" 307
Adhesive iodine paint 476
Adulterated powdered assafetida 518
Adulteration of food and drugs in England 29
Adulteration of annatto, alleged 54
Aiken, Dr. William E. A., On the inspection of drugs in Baltimore . 506
Alcohol, preparation of concentrated 120
Alcohol in chloroform, test for the presence of . . . 213
Alcohol, strength of commercial 391
Alcoholometric scales of Richter and Tralles . . . 316
Alizarin ink, on the so-called 445
Alkaloids, reaction of iodine with the 212
Alloys of aluminium and iron 174
Allchin, Alfred, on the construction of aquaria for the preservation of leeches 222
Almond paste 79
Almond meal 80
Almond balls 86
Aloetin, researches on 543
Aloetin, on the medical properties of 547
Aluminium as a substitute for silver 220
Aluminium from cryolite 237

Aluminium, preparation of 417
Amandine 78
American Pharmaceutical Association 381, 478
American Tamarinds 370
Ammonia, on the generation of 149
Ammonio-ferric alum 305
Ammonio-ferric alum, addendum to 478
Amorphous phosphorus, purification of 439
Amylic alcohol 155
Analysis of sperm oil 3
Analysis, improved method of ultimate organic . . . 394
Annatto, adulteration of 54
Antimony, purification of 64
Antimonial vermillion 338
Antimony, protochloride of, as precipitated by water . . 458
Anti-gout wine 183
Anti-blenorrhagic opiate 371
Apiol, a substitute for quinine 43
Apothecaries' Association of the District of Columbia . . 285, 573
Apparatus for the preparation of ether by steam . . . 385
Art of perfumery, notice of the 383
Arrow root 469
Artificial preparation of alcohol 184
Artificial soda, report on the history of 424
Arsenic, paper containing 220
Astringent application, new form of 443
Assafetida, adulterated powdered 518
Assimilative qualities of various fatty bodies . . . 524
Assimilation of nitrogen by plants 567
Atropia, preparation of neutral sulphate of 360
Australian medical plants 72

Balsam of flowers 178
Balsam of neroly 178
Battey, Robert, on Gossipium herbaceum 401
Baudrimont, E., on the precipitation of protochloride of antimony by water 464
Bawens, M., on the action of the vegetable acids on calomel . 527
Bayes, Dr. Wm., on a new form of astringent application . . 443
Bear's grease 178
Beatson, William, on sodium and its manufacture . . . 57
Beck's lectures on materia medica and therapeutics . . . 574
Beer, detection of picric acid in 525
Bertherand, M., on the use of henna and koheul among the Arabs . 59
Berthollet, M., on some sacharine substances . . . 156
" new process for preparing formic acid . . 557
Bessauer, Wm., on the manufacture of iron and steel without fuel . 561
Benzoin pommade 177

Berries and leaves of Ilex opaca 312
Bichromate of potash and sulphuric acid test for strychnia, on the . 474
Bichromate of potassa, poisonous properties of . . . 533
Bisulphide of carbon, characters of the flame off . . . 464
Bi-sulphuret of carbon, action of the vapor of 219
Blancard's pills of iodide of iron 39
Bloom of roses 272
Blanc de perle 272
Blue pill, preparation of 161
Bones, solubility of, in water 443
Boucherie, Dr., patent process for preserving wood . . . 471
Boutigny's method for iodide of iron 517
Bran, its useful effect in bread 565
Breed, Dr. D., on nitrogenous manures 142
Bronze latin labels for shop furniture 90
Brown, D. R., on sweet spirits of nitre 248
Breigleb, P., on the action of phosphate of soda on fluor spar . 529
Brine, poisonous properties of 534
Brucia, testing for 349
Bryonin, on the preparation of 166
Buchu, compound fluid extract of 17
Buck, John, note on the strength of commercial alcohol . . 391
Buchner, Max., on the oxyphenic acid of wood vinegar . . 343
Bullock, Charles, remarks on Boutigny's process for protoiodide of mercury 517

Caffein, new method of preparing 232
Calcined magnesia 7
Calcined talc 272
Caldwell, Alonzo, on a new gun cotton 4
Calomel, action of vegetable acids on 527
Calvert, Prof., on the conversion of tannic into gallic acid in the extracts of tanning substances 455
" on the alloys of iron and aluminium . . 175
Camphor cold cream 85
Camphor balls 86
Camphor paste 86
Canadian isinglass 133
Cantharis vesicatoria, cantharidin value of 193
Cantharis vittata, cantharidin value of 193
Cantharidin, preparation of 231
Caoutchouc, use of liquid 182
Carbon and hydrogen, determinations in organic analysis . . 394
Carbonic acid, its physiological and therapeutical effects . . 69
Casselman Arthur, on tartrate of lime and a reaction for tartaric acid 53
Castor oil pomatum 179
Castor oil as a mechanical lubricant 184
Castor oil beans, experiments on 206

Catechu and its acids 326
Cement of oxychloride of zinc 165
Certificate of membership of the American Pharmaceutical Association 187
Chart of incompatibles and poisons, notice of 288
Charter of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy . . . 278
Character of red wine adulterated with alum 342
Characters of the flame of bisulphide of carbon . . . 466
Chelerythrine, identity of with sanguinarina 41
Chemical tests for strychnia 458
Chinese porcelain, manufacture of 467
Chinese alum 469
Chimie Appliquee a la Physiologie, notice of 189
Chloride of antimony, its precipitation by water . . . 458
Chloride of lime, its valuation by sulphate of iron . . . 359
Chlorimetry 61
Chloroform paregoric, by Dr. Hartshorn 19
Chloroform, test for the presence of, in alcohol . . . 213
Chloroform 529
Chloroform, poisoning by . . . . . r . 531
Chlorophylle, on 46
Chromic acid, action of, on the volatile oils 197
Chrysophanic-acid 525
Circassian cream 178
Cinchona, introduction of into Java 325
Code of ethics of the Maryland College of Pharmacy . . 374
Cod liver oil, modes of administering 1
Coffee, deodorizing properties of 183
Colchicum seeds, comminution of 397
Colchicum seeds, wine of 514
Colchicum autumnale as a source of alcohol 219
Cold cream 83
Collection of indigenous drugs, hints relative to . . . 411
Colocynthin, preparation of 166
Commencement of the Phila. College of Pharmacy for 1856 . 275
Composition for attaching labels 320
Composition of the yellow substance in molybdic acid test for phosphoric acid 369
Composition for coating iron ship bottoms 371
Composition of the muscles of animals 346
Composition of the water of the Delaware river . . . 427
Composition of creosote 229
Common violet pomatum 179
Compound syrup of squill 397
Construction of aquaria for leeches 222
Contributions to toxicology 49, 321, 532
Consumption of quinine in the United States 367
Conversion of tannic into gallic acid in the extracts of tannic substances 455

Constitution of the American Pharmaceutical Association . . 501
Copaiba, wood-oil a substitute for 159
Copney, William, tests for iodate and carbonate of potassa in iodide of potassium 357
" on the chemical tests for strychnia . . 458
Copper vessels, untinned 158
Corrosive vapors, new process for arresting, in chimneys . . 525
Cotton, on a new-gun 4
Cotton seed oil 469
Cotton root, chemical properties of 401
Cotton, production of in the United States 401
Coumarin, preparation of 445
Cough Candy 18
Creosote, composition of 226
Croton oil, its extraction with sulphuret of carbon . . . 446
Cryolite, aluminium from 237
Crystallized oil 178
Cultivation of liquorice in the United States . . . 183
Cucumber cold cream 85
Cummings, Dr. H. T., notes and queries on practical Pharmacy . 399
Cyanide of potassium, on fused 234
Cyanide of potassium, commercial value of 555

Dalton, Jr., Dr. John C., on the decompositition of iodide of starch by the animal fluids 261
De Claussen, Chev., on various plants used for paper pulp . . 168
" on Hancornia speciosa, artificial gutta percha and

Procter, Jr. William, Fluid extract of wild cherry bark . 21
" remarks on a carbonic acid apparatus . 103
" further remarks on fluid extract and on wine of wild cherry bark . . . 107
" test for the presence of alcohol in chloroform 213

Procter, jr., William, remarks on flavoring extracts . . 215
" hints on the collection of indigenous drugs . 411
" on fluid extract of uva ursi and lupulin . 523
Production of saffron in Cashmere 63
Production of palmetic acid from mafurra tallow . . 163
Production of high temperatures 447
Pronouncing medical lexicon 94
Proto-sulphate of nickel 415
Proto-chloride of antimony, its precipitation from water . 464
Prot-iodide of mercury, on Boutigny's method for . . 517
Prunus virginiana, fluid extract of 21
Purification of antimony 64
Purification of hippuric acid 172
Purification of honey 114
Purification of acetic ether 400
Purification of water supplied to towns . . . 430
Purification of amorphous phosphorus . . . 439
Pucetti, M., on a new method of preparing caffein . . 232

Quack medicine labels not patentable . . . 377
Quevenne, T. A., on a simple means of labelling vessels in damp places 167
Quick depilatory 270
Quick process for mercurial ointment . . . 181
Quinine and carbonate of ammonia in pills . . . 309

Rademacher, M., on tincture of acetate of copper . . 120
Ramsey, Prof., on a process for obtaining lithographs by photography 173
Reaction of nux vomica 52
Reaction of tartaric acid 53
Reaction of iodine with the alkaloids . . . 212
Reactions of oxalic acid, on some 345
Refined liquorice, preparation of 225
Relations of physicians with pharmaceutists . . . 25
Remarks on a carbonic acid apparatus . . . 103
Remarks on untinned copper vessels 158
Remarks on flavoring extracts 215
Remarks on haschiscin and its pharmaceutical applications . 361
Remarks on Boutigny's process for iodide of mercury . . 517
Reorganization of the Maryland college of pharmacy . . 285
Report on home adulterations 126
Report on text books to the American Pharmaceutical Association 490
Report on the inspection of drugs at Baltimore . . . 506
Researches on oxygen in a nascent state . . . 74
Researches on aloetin 543
Reynosa, Alvaro, on the action of glucose on the salts of copper in the presence of acetates 140
Rhatany root 536
Rio de la Losa, M., on pipitzahoic acid . . . 242

Roubiquet, M. E., researches on aloetin 543
Rose cold cream 84
Rose lip salve 86
Rose, Heinrich, on the preparation of aluminium from cryolite . 237
Rose face powder 272
Rouge and red paints 272
Ruschenberger, W. S. W. Dr., on the mercury of New Almaden, Cal., 97

Saccharine substances, on some 156
Saffron, its production in Cashmere 63
Sanguinaria canadensis, new principle in 521
Salmonic acid 348
Scattergood, George J., on castor oil beans 206
Schaffer, Charles, obituary notice of 277
Schleinkamp, Dr., on a reagent for nux vomica . . 52
Schuchardt, Dr., on Rhatany root 536
Scutellaria, on fluid extract of 87
Sedra of California 51
Self-closing faucets 371
Seneka, compound syrup of ipecac and 205
Shakspeare, B. A., on acid nitrate of mercury . . . 5
Sharp, A. P., on the strength of commercial alcohol . . 210
Shiel, Dr. James, on the identity of sanguinarina and chelerithrina, and on the direct determination of nitrogen . . 41
Shaw, Dr. S. A. G., on poisoning by strychnine . . 244
Sherwood, Dr. W., on poisoning by stramonium seeds . . 266
Silica, on hydrated 47
Silicate of ammonia 47
Silver hair dye 269
Silvering and gilding of glass 451
Slater, J. W., on some reactions of oxalic acid . . 345
Soda water, more poison in 102
Soda and sulphuric acid, new process for 121
Sodium and its manufacture 57
Sodium, preparation of 417
Solution of gutta percha 208
Solubility of bones in water 443
Soft Sulphur 474
Sorel, M., on a process for making cement of oxychloride of zinc . 165
Spice plaster 19
Spigelia jelly 182
Spiritus ætheris nitrici 289
Squibb, Dr. Edward R., U. S. Navy, elementary analysis of sperm oil 3
" " on spiritus ætheris nitrici 289
" " apparatus for preparing ether by steam heat . . . 385
" " improved method for carbon and hydrogen determinations in organic analysis . 394

Standard of specific gravity for alcohol, U. S. . . . 209
Stark, James, M. D., on writing inks . . . 185
Stanhope, Wm. B., on Gillenia trifoliata . . . 200
Stearns, Frederick, on compound syrup of ipecac and seneka . 205
on a composition for attaching labels . 320
Stoddart, W. W., on the preparation of blue pill, &c. . . 161
Stoke's liniment 311
Strawberry leaves as a substitute for tea . . . 114
Stramonium seeds, poisoning by 266
Strength of commercial alcohol 391
Strychnia, falsification of 24
Strychnia, poisoning by, treated with olive oil . . 244
Strychnia, on the detection of 257
Strychnia, test for 368
Strychnia, on the chemical tests for 458
Strychnia, on the bichromate of potass and SO_3 test for . . 474
Strychnia, testing for 549
Strychnia, new method of extracting 553
Substitute for tinctura cinchonæ ferrata . . . 18
Substitute for quinine, appiol a 43
Sugar from cider 158
Succinic acid, its preparation from malate of lime . . 351
Success and failure in photography, causes of . . . 440
Sulphate of atropia, preparation of 360
Sulphate of nickel, proto 415
Sulphur in hops, detection of 349
Sulphur, soft 474
Sulphuret of carbon, its employment for industrial purposes . 356
Sulphuret of carbon, effect of its inhalation . . 532
Sulphuret of iron for chemical analysis . . . 533
Syrup of orange peel, compound 181
Syrup of coffee 372
Syrup of squills, compound 397
Syrup of poppies 399
Sweet spirit of nitre 248

Tamarinds, American 370
Tannehill, T. H., on a new process for Dover's powder . . 515
Tannic acid in chilblains 150
Tannic acid into gallic, conversion of . . . 455
Tartrate of lime 53
Telegraph in Switzerland 468
Test for morphia 9
Test for the presence of alcohol in chloroform . . . 213
Test for carbonate and iodate of potash in iodide of potassium . 357
Test for strychnia 368
Testing for strychnia and brucia 549
Thayer's fluid extracts 88

Uva ursi and lupulin, fluid extract of 523
Valenciennes and Fremy, on the composition of the muscles of animals 346
Van der Corput on hydro-cyanate of morphia . . . 364
Vanilla pomade 178
Varieties . . . . . .
Vasey, M., on untinned copper vessels . . . 158
Veratria and aconitia in a toxicological point of view . . 117
Veratria and some of its salts 134
Veratria, chloride of gold and 135
Veratria, sulphate of 136
Violet cold cream 84
Violet face powder 272
Vogel, Jr., A., on the generation of ammonia . . . 149
Volatile oils, mutual action of chromic acid with the . . 197
Voltaic battery, peculiar arrangement of . . . 467

Warner, Wm. R., on the medicinal value of cantharis vittata, mylabris cichorii and cantharis vesicatoria compared . 193
Therapeutic action of sulphuret of carbon vapor . . 219
Tincture of acetate copper 120
Tincture of cinchona and quassia, compound . . . 18
Tinctura ferri muriatis 398
Tonka bean pomade 177
Toilet rouges 273
Toxicology, contributions to . . . 49, 321, 532
Trillin 512
Tulley's materia medica 382
Turkish hair dye 268

Ultra-marine, its manufacture at Neuremberg . . . 416
United States standard of specific gravity for alcohol . . 209
Uranium, preparation of 247
Use of liquid caoutchouc 182
Use of methylated spirit for pharmaceutical preparations . 150
Useful products of the natural order palmaceæ . . 129
Utility of bran in bread as tending to aid intestinal evacuations . 565
Watson, Wm. J., on fluid extract of ergot . . . 519
Water supplied to towns, purification of . . . 430
Water, solubility of bones in 443
Water of the Delaware river, composition of . . . 427
Wayne, Edward S., on strychnia adulterated with oxalic acid . 24
" " on leptandra virginica . . . 510
" " on a peculiar principle of the natural order Trilliaceæ 512
" " on a new principle from sanguinaria canadensis 521
" " on cotton-seed oil . . . 487
